

QUALIFICATIONS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE

District Governor

In addition to the qualifications of governor-nominee, a governor, at the time of taking office, must have completed seven years of membership in one or more clubs and have attended the governors-elect training seminar and International assembly (RMP 16.080)

District Governor-elect

The qualifications of the DGE are the same as those of the DGN.

District Governor-nominee (RMP 16.070)

At the time of selection, the governor-nominee must:

- Be a member in good standing of a functioning club in the district
- Have full qualifications for membership in the strict application of the club membership provisions, and the integrity of the Rotarian's classification must be without question.
- Have served as president of a club for a full term or be a charter president of a club having served the full term from the date of the charter to 30 June, provided that this period is for at least six months.
- Demonstrate willingness, commitment, and ability, physically and otherwise to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of the office of governor as provided in RI_ (RMP 16.090)
- Demonstrate knowledge of the qualifications, duties, and responsibilities of governor as prescribed in the RI Bylaws. And submit to RI, through its general secretary, a signed statement acknowledging a clear understanding of them. This statement shall also confirm that the Rotarian is qualified for the office of governor and willing and able to assume the duties and responsibilities of the office and to perform them faithfully.
- Have completed seven years of membership in one or more clubs at the time of taking office as a District Governor.
- Attend the international convention during their DGN and DGE years of their tenure.

District Governor-nominee-designee

At the time of selection, the governor-nominee-designee must meet the requirements of the DGN.

6.03 District Governor-Nominee (RCP 19.020)

Attendance at the GETS (Governors-elect Training Seminar) is mandatory for the governor-nominee. The RI Board has adopted a two-day training program for governors-nominee at the zone level to be help in conjunction with Rotary institutes. The training programs integrate topics approved by the RI Board and the Trustees. Attendance at Zone 31 training events is mandatory for the governor-nominee. Attendance at the International Convention is also mandatory for governor-nominee to enhance his/her knowledge of Rotary.

As an incoming officer of RI, the governor-nominee should:

- Begin to prepare for the role of governor.

- Foster continuity by working with past, current, and incoming district leaders to support effective clubs.
- Begin analyzing the district's strengths and weaknesses with background material provided by the immediate past governor, governor, and governor-elect.
- Review the district organization (District Leadership Plan) and club administrative framework (Club Leadership plan).
- Attend district meetings when possible, at the invitation of the district governor or district governor-elect.
- Participate in district committees or other activities, as may be suggested by the district governor or district governor-elect.
- Attend district governor-nominee training if offered or seek other training if available.
- Attend training in leadership skills.
- Select a site for the district conference held during the year of the governor-nominee's service, with the agreement of the majority of the current club presidents or majority of the club presidents serving in the governor-nominee's year.

Then governor and governor-elect should provide the governor-nominee:

- The opportunity to request specific responsibilities or assignments in connections with district committees or district organization.
- Invitations to attend as an observer any or all district meetings.
- A proper introduction at the district conference and an opportunity to be part of the organizing committee as an observer.
- The opportunity to participate in all strategic planning efforts and long-term appointments in the district. (RCP 19.020)

6.04 District Governor Nominee Designee

As an incoming officer of RI, the governor-nominee should:

- Begin to prepare for the role of governor.
- Foster continuity by working with past, current, and incoming district leaders to support effective clubs.
- Begin analyzing the district's strengths and weaknesses with background material provided by the immediate past governor, governor, and governor-elect.
- Review the district organization (District Leadership Plan) and club administrative framework (Club Leadership plan).
- Attend Zone Emerging Leaders Seminar as required.